I have learned to channel my voice and offer others hope, help, and empowerment for their talents, dreams, and agendas. So why go public? I am a freelance marketing and communications professional. I believe that people matter and are motivated by messages that send them into a focused state. My job is to help get you this message. I have worked in various roles for over 30 years...I won't lie, it's easy for me to write all of this in a linear fashion and tell myself that I did all of this in a linear fashion. But, that's not true. My life is full of big ups and downs. I live with the knowledge that many decisions that I make can change my life for better or worse. For a while now, I have asked myself "what if" and I have

A police officer who shot and killed a man who was in the hospital recovering from a heart attack has been cleared in the shooting. Terrelle Mitchell, 23, died after a police officer shot him during an arrest at the Houston Community College Hermann Campus on July 26. For more than a year, Mitchell's family has argued that officers were not only interfering with his care but also lied about what happened. The final lawsuit from Mitchell's family included an allegation that the officer used a racial slur. That allegation was never proven. According to the family, Mitchell was a U.S. Army veteran who had suffered serious injuries at the time of his arrest. Terrelle Mitchell, 23, died after he was shot by a Houston police officer during an arrest at Houston Community College's Hermann Campus on July 26.
